

BOYCOTT QUKES

Perfection Fresh is a company where workers have faced sexual violence, bullying, unsafe work practices and harassment.

YOU can support workers at Perfection Fresh in their fight for a safe workplace by boycotting Qukes.

‘Qukes’ are baby cucumbers trademarked by Perfection Fresh. So no matter how they’re packaged or where they’re sold, these mini-cucumbers are lining Perfection Fresh’s pockets.

The key sellers of Qukes are Coles, Woolworths and ALDI. These major supermarkets have the market power and responsibility to fix the rot in their supply chain.

WHAT YOU CAN DO!
