

Saturday 3 October 2026
Melbourne Multicultural Hub
506 Elizabeth St, Melbourne

More info, conference program and bookings: www.faithecolology.net.au

The Faith Ecology Network and The Australian Earth Laws Alliance warmly invites people of faith to a gathering of like-minded people from across all faith and science tradition to a 1-day conference at the Multicultural Hub, Melbourne on Saturday 3 October 2026.

Places are limited — Book your ticket now:

Waged: $140
Concession/Unwaged/Students: $95

www.faithecolology.net.au

Scan Here:

Go to www.faithecolology.net.au to read about our speakers, and panelists from all faith backgrounds. The program includes the following speakers sharing insights on:

- Finding our Place on Country | Sherry Balcombe-Maloney
An Olkola / Mularidji woman from Far North Qld, NATSICC Rep, Cultural Worker, Royal Botanical Gardens' Aboriginal Heritage Walk tour guide, and contributor to "An Urgent Call: Laudato Si' & Indigenous Wisdom in Oceania", published by the Vatican.
- Locating Ourselves in the Ecosystem | Prof Sarah Bekessy
Lead Councillor with The Biodiversity Council, Professor at Melbourne University, and 2020 Winner of the City of Melbourne Design Challenge.
- Growing New Ways of Being | Dr Michelle Maloney
Director of The Australian Earth Laws Alliance, holds a PhD in environmental regulation, and is Co-Founder and Director of Future Dreaming Australia, Adjunct Fellow, Institute for Sustainable Futures UTS
- Deep Listening in the Nature | Andrew Skeoch
Educator, author, naturalist, world-renowned nature sound recordist featured at Sydney Wildlife World, on 'Rabbit Proof Fence' Soundtrack, and Disney's 2016 remake of 'The Jungle Book'.

www.faithecolology.net.au